Respect, Hope, Friendship and Forgiveness.

Newsletter Summer Term

Friday 30th June 2023

Dear Parents and Carers,

I hope all of the families who have celebrated Eid this week have had a lovely time with family and friends. The children thoroughly enjoyed their parties on Tuesday in school.

This week, in Act of Worship, we have been thinking about the importance of being honest and telling the truth. The children have shared some wonderful examples of telling the truth and how when we tell the truth and if we own up to mistakes people are more likely to forgive. We have created our own special treasure box to help us gather our thoughts about being honest.

On Monday, we had some visitors from the Department of Education within the Diocese of Leeds. They were full of praise for our school. Thank you to all the parents who spoke to them during their visit.

Please make sure you read the messages below, especially as there have been some date changes.

Best wishes,
Mr Blackburn.

Go Go Go Mrs Brunton:

This weekend, Mrs Brunton is completing the Total Warrior Challenge, which involves 12km of obstacles, mud slides and wires. Mrs Brunton is doing this for a great cause. All funds she raises will go to Forget Me Not Children's Hospice, which is also the charity our Year 1 children have chosen to support as one of our chosen whole school charities. If anyone fancies sponsoring Mrs Brunton, even just a pound, it will definitely be put to good use at the hospice. Please drop any donations off at the school office by Wednesday next week. Thanks for your support in advance and good luck Mrs Brunton!

Date changes:

Non-Uniform Day:

As you can appreciate at this time of year there are many events occurring in school. So we have had to make some changes to some events.

First of all we send our apologies, as we are changing the date of our chocolate/sweet donation non-uniform again. This will now be on WEDNESDAY 5TH JULY.

On this day children are invited to come in non-uniform. In exchange for doing so, please could each child bring some sweets or chocolate in for our Tombola stall at the upcoming summer fayre. Thank you for your donations in advance.

Sports Day:

This will now be on Wednesday 12th July. NOT Wednesday 5th July. Further details regarding sports day to follow.

Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.

Transition:

On Tuesday 4th July it is our Transition Day. Children will find out their new class, class teacher/teachers and visit their new class for the day.

Jewellery:

Please can we remind you that the only jewellery children can wear for school is a watch that does not have a camera on and one pair of studded earrings that must be removed or covered by plasters for PE. Children must be able to do this themselves. This is for health and safety reasons.
